

TRAINING COURSE

EU Regulation 2016/679 and EU Directive 2016/680

Pick Center - Guglielmo Marconi Place, 15 – 00144

September 19

MODULO V

Independent supervisory authorities

10:00 – 11:45

Anna Barbato (Transparency unit at Municipality of Naples)

Objectives: the module will focus on the establishment of the independent supervisory authorities introduced by Regulation 679/2016.

In particular, priority will be given to:

- Principle of independence;
- Competence and powers of independent supervisory authorities;
- The lead control authority. Skills, tasks and powers.
- Coherence mechanism;
- Exchange of information;
- Emergency procedure;
- European Data Protection Board. Tasks and functions.

Expected results: knowledge of the new roles of independent supervisory authorities and of control and cooperation among States in relation to the processing of personal data.

MODULO VI

European Data Protection Board

11:45 – 13:30

Anna Barbato (Transparency unit at Municipality of Naples)

Objectives: the module will focus on the establishment of the European Data Protection Board and, in particular:

- principle of independence;
- functions and tasks;
- members of the committee.

Expected results: greater awareness of the instruments introduced by the Regulation to ensure the correct application of privacy legislation and coordination procedures with the Parliament, the Council and the Commission.

MODULE VII

Data protection officer

14:30 – 16:15

Stefano Paoli (Data Protection Officer)

Objectives: the module will present the new figure of the Data Protection Officer (DPO), professional historically already present in some European legislation but introduced at European level only with the Regulation 679/2016.

In particular:

- Designation of the data protection officer
- Position of the data protection officer
- Tasks of the data protection officer

Expected results: greater awareness of the new role of the DPO and the tasks assigned to it.

MODULE VIII

Extrajudicial and judicial protection

16:15 – 17:45

Stefano Paoli (Data Protection Officer)

Objectives: the module will focus on extrajudicial and judicial remedies to resolve disputes related to possible violations in the processing of personal data.

In particular, priority will be given to:

- Remedies, liability and penalties
- Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority
- Right to an effective judicial remedy against a supervisory authority
- Right to an effective judicial remedy against a controller or processor
- Representation of data subjects
- Suspension of proceedings
- Right to compensation and liability
- Penalties

Expected results: knowledge of out-of-court and judicial dispute resolution tools.

